

General Manager

Job Description

The General Manager will be responsible for managing the operations and profitability of the assigned hotel; report directly to senior officers of the organization and ownership; work closely with brand representatives to ensure all areas of the hotel comply with brand standards; maintain superior guest satisfaction scores; directly recruit and develop hotel team; proactively create & implement strategies to enhance the profitability and revenue generation of the hotel. Becoming an integral part of the community and possessing the ability to build relationships with key decision makers is a must to build hotel revenue.

This position will be accountable for areas in Financial Management, Revenue Management, Sales and Marketing, Guest Satisfaction, Organizational Leadership, People Development, Account Management, Information Management & Reporting, and Asset Management.

More information about our company can be obtained on our website at www.strandhospitality.com.

Requirements

Candidate should have a minimum of three years of experience as GM with a solid track record. This person must have strong leadership skills and be well organized. Must have ability to lead all departments and help drive the revenue and quality of the hotel operations. Being comfortable with making sales calls is a must. Knowledge of the greater Atlanta market preferred. Marriott experience preferred.